

Galaxy

96, 144, 192, 240... 768 Channels

Galaxy provides facilities previously only a much more expensive systems but all for dedicated-function controls with latest-tak precedence organisation. Rapid control at channels, groups of channels, and pre-rec memories is provided together with playback incorporating fader wheels for manual inter recorded-time, split-start crossfades or more. All prime numerical displays are embodied in shallow modular control panels so that reference mono or colour VDU can be limited to pre-Optional modules include submasters for and an effects generator.

The optional alpha-numeric keyboard allows text, channel to dimmer patching, listing a transfer between the managed CMOS memory optional Floppy Disc library store.